

Why Are Fares Required in Leadville?

Fare-free travel is funded by the new 0.5% sales tax being collected in the seven jurisdictions from Eagle County that voted in favor of forming the EVTA in November of 2022. As Leadville is not part of Eagle County, this initiative does not extend to this community. Therefore, fares are still required for public transportation services in Leadville.

Please note that future changes to this policy may occur based on community decisions and developments.
